STATE OF OHIO
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
COLUMBUS

Ohio has the proud distinction today of entertaining the State University of a sister commonwealth with which she possesses more in common than with any other member of our great Union.

Here meet East and West blending a typical American citizenry and to have been born a Hoosier is second only to having been born a Buckeye.

Both Indiana and Ohio have produced wonderful athletes as well as statesmen and other eminent men. We pay them homage as we assemble to witness our gridiron history makers of today battle for the supremacy of nineteen hundred and twenty-five.

Changes in Football Rules for 1925

Most of the changes in the football rules this year again deal with minor details of phrasing. Further attempt has been made to explain clearly a number of points upon which coaches and officials have been in dispute.

THE KICKOFF

All kickoffs this year will be made from the kicking team's 40-yard line instead of the middle of the field, as was the case last fall. All artificial tees, including scraping up of earth, have been abolished on the kickoff, all place kicks and free kicks.

WINNER OF TOSS ALLOWED THIRD OPTION

The winner of the toss at the start of the game may elect to do one of three things: (1) to kick off, (2) to receive the kickoff, or (3) to choose the goal he wishes to defend. The loser has a choice of the other two remaining after the winner makes his election. Of course, if the winner selects either Number 1 or 2, the loser must choose the goal.

OFFSIDE PLAY

Offside play by defense no longer automatically gives first down to the offense. In offside play the penalty remains five yards, as heretofore, but the down and point to be gained remain the same. Now the offensive team may secure first down when the defense is offside, only when there is five yards or less to be gained on the play during which the defense was offside. Formerly it automatically became first down.

BLOCKED KICKS

When a blocked kick, which does not cross the line of scrimmage, is recovered by the kicking team, it counts as a down. If the blocking occurred on the fourth down the kicking team loses the ball, even though it recovers the ball. Formerly it became first down. It makes no difference by which side the kick was blocked. Of course, as heretofore, if the defensive team recovers the ball, it automatically becomes first down.

If the kick is partially blocked and thereafter crosses the scrimmage line, the ball is to be played exactly as if it had not been touched. Formerly touching of the ball by the defense made every player on both teams eligible to recover the ball. Now it has to be touched by the defense after crossing the line of scrimmage, before this is true. However, as in former years, if an attempted goal from the field touches a player of the kicking side, the goal, if made, shall not be allowed.

FLYING TACKLE NOW LEGAL

The flying tackle and tackling below the knees are again legal.

3. Running into the kicker after he has kicked the ball.

5. Failure to advance the ball 10 yards in four downs.

6. Kicking or kicking at a loose ball.

Forfeiture of Game

Important Note Regarding Time Out

Time is automatically taken out during a try for point after a touchdown, after a safety or a touchback, after fair catch has been made, after an incomplete forward pass, during enforcement of all penalties, when the ball goes out of bounds, or when for any reason play is suspended by the referee. Time shall not begin again, after any of the aforesaid, until the ball is actually passed back from center.

Aetat Majestat

In the personal automotive establishments of His Most Gracious Majesty, King George of Britain, and of King Albert of Belgium, are nothing but cars engined with the patented Knight sleeve-valve motor. Come and join in song together,
Shout with might and main;
Our beloved Alma Mater,
Sound her praise again.
Honor to the Cream and Crimson,
Banner that we love
It shall lead us in the conflict,
And our triumph prove.
Senior, junior, sophomore, freshman,
All together we
Sound the chorus loud and glorious,
State University.
Here's to her whose name we'll ever
Cherish in our song
Honor, love, and true devotion,
All to her belong.

Chorus

Gloriana, Frangipana,
E'er to her be true
She's the pride of Indiana,
Hail to old I. U.!

Fight that team across the field,
Show them Ohio's here.

Set the earth reverberating with a mighty

Hit them hard and see how they fall;

Never let that team get the ball

Hail! Hail! the gang's all here,

So let's beat that Indiana now.

Oho, Ohio! Oh, Ohio! Wa-hoo! Wa-hoo!
for Ohio.

CARMEN OHIO

Words and Music by

Fred Cornell, ex-'06

(Hats off, standing)

O, come, let's sing Ohio's praise
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill
With joy that death alone can still.
Summer's heat or winter's cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will truly show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.

These jolly days of priceless worth
By far the gladdest days on earth,
Soon will pass and we not know
How dearly we love Ohio.
We should strive to keep thy name
Of fair repute and spotless fame;
So in college halls we'll grow
And love thee better—Ohio.

Alumni Chorus

Tho, age may dim our mem'ry's store,
We'll think of happy days of yore,
True to friend and frank to foe,
As sturdy sons of O-hi-o.
If on seas of care we roll,
'Neath blackened sky, o'er barren shoal.
Thots of thee bid darkness go,
Dear Alma Mater—O-hi-o.
(All in on last Ohio.)

THE BUCKEYE BATTLE CRY

Words and Music by Frank Crummit

In old Ohio there's a team,
That's known thruout the land;
Eleven warriors, brave and bold,
Whose fame will ever stand,
And when the ball goes over,
Our cheers will reach the sky,
Ohio Field will hear again
The Buckeye Battle Cry.

Drive! Drive on down the field,
Men of the scarlet and gray;
Don't let them thru that line,
We have to win this game today,
Come on, Ohio! Smash thru to victory,
We cheer you as we go;
Our honor defend
Se we'll fight to the end
For Ohio.

INDIANA OUR INDIANA

Indiana, Our Indiana,
Indiana, we're all for you;
We will fight for the Cream and Crimson,
For the glory of old I. U.
Never daunted, we cannot falter,
In the battle, we're tried and true.
Indiana, our Indiana,
Indiana, we're all for you.

How the "Big Ten" Grew

The Western Intercollegiate Conference, now popularly known as the "Big Ten," was organized on January 11, 1895, by presidents of seven middle western universities, meeting in Chicago to consider the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

Members of the Conference as its inception were: Chicago, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Northwestern, Purdue and Wisconsin.

Indiana and the State University of Iowa were admitted on December 1, 1899.

Ohio State University is the junior member of the "Big Ten," having been admitted to membership on April 6, 1921.

Michigan withdrew from the Conference on January 14, 1908, accepted an invitation to return on June 9, 1917, and resumed membership on November 20, 1917.

Precedent and resolutions rather than a written constitution are the agenda of control in the Western Intercollegiate Conference. Each member institution has a faculty representative entitled to one vote. No person who receives pay for services connected with athletics or the Department of Physical Education is eligible to sit as a Conference representative.

Annual meetings are held on Chicago in December. Called meetings are held as necessity arises. A majority vote of representatives passes any measure, but all legislation must go to the faculties of the member institutions for approval. Any measure rejected within 60 days by one or more faculties must be reconsidered at the next meeting of the Conference. The measure becomes operative, however, if again passed by a majority vote and any institution rejecting it a second time is subject to suspension from the Conference.

A Chance to Help

If you did not enlist, or if you did not serve out your enlistment in the great army of Stadium Subscribers, it is not too late.

You can still sign up, or, if circumstances have delayed you in completing the payment of your Stadium pledge, there is no time like the present.

The wisdom of building the Stadium as it is instead of the much smaller plant originally planned is amply proved. There remains, however, a debt to meet. Have you done your share?

Each fall a number of lovers of football, in particular, and all intercollegiate contests, generally, voluntarily join the ranks of the army of subscribers.
